Coaches and Volunteers

Don't forget that every team needs a coach and every year we need new coaches to volunteer, especially in the younger divisions. Coaching is fun and does not require previous experience, just enthusiasm and a few hours a week. If you enjoy seeing happy sweaty faces, the rewards are huge! Not the coaching type? Don't worry; we could still use your help! Please use the volunteer section of the registration package to volunteer.

If you have any questions that this package does not answer, check the web site at dmbha.com. If still unsure, contact our registrar:

Linda Hudson at HUDSON66@DCCNET.COM or 604-599-1406.

Looking forward to a great season, and again remember to register early!!!

If you register online and you require player affiliation (see above requirement), please email the registrar with this request. If registering in person, please make note of the request on the top of the registration form.

DMBHA Refund Policy

- A full refund will be returned upon notification (email to registrar and one of the presidents) on or before March 15, 2010.

3. Explain your expectations and philosophy about respect for officials, and model it through your own behaviour.
4. If consistently poor officiating needs to be challenged and improved, it can be done in a controlled and professional way, after the games time and with the appropriate support (such as the league organizer or referee in chief.)
